Is it not about time the Supervisors were advertising for bids for printing the Great Register?

MAINE'S population for this year is given as 360,261, an increase of only 11,125 in the last ten years.

The wonderful growth of cities in America brings forward a serious problem in social science, and one that it will take years to solve satisfactorily.

SPURRED on by the success of the order of the Native Sons of the Golden West, of California, Oregon's children propose to organize a society of Native Sons of the Webfoot State.

TO THE Tucson Star we would say that the grand old Catholic church does not teach that crimes and open defiance of the United States laws are a part of religion, while the Mormon church does. That is the difference. Sabe?

JUDGE CALHOUN, President of the Mississippi Constitutional Convention, does not disguise the fact that he is there to look out for white supremacy in the State, and distinctly tells his co-laborers that such is his purpose.

It is a very small matter, but when the El Paso Herald uses clippings from THE ARIZONA REPUBLICAN we would prefer not to have them credited to some other paper. Anything found worthy of reproduction we are glad to see used, but either give the credit where due or don't credit at all.

The Brussels correspondent of the London Times says that Miss Sybil Sanderson, the young American singer who appeared in the opera of Esclarmonde, at Brussels, Thursday night, scored a brilliant success. Miss Sanderson is a California girl who had already scored a great success in Paris.

The only Mormons ever pardoned from the penitentiary, who had been sentenced for a violation of the laws in this Territory were pardoned by that high priest of Democracy, Grover Cleveland. Yet the Prescott Courier has the audacity to stand up and say they were pardoned by Republican Presidents. Out upon such lying.

ENTERPRISING Californians have secured a franchise to build a toll road from San Gabriel valley to the summit of Mt. Cucamonga, locally known as "Old Baldy." This mountain is over 12,000 feet above sea level and is snow-capped almost the entire summer, so that residents of the City of the Angels will by another year have a place where they can go and cool off.

The Reapportionment bill of the new State of Washington, passed by special session of the legislature, and which became a law yesterday by the signature of Governor Ferry, is based on the census of the State, of 348,000. The State is redistricted to thirty-four Senatorial and seventy-eight Representative districts, no county, however small, being without a Representative. The former Senate numbered fifty-five members and the House seventy members. The new bill passed with but eight dissenting votes in both Houses.

SAYS the San Francisco Bulletin: "Idaho advises report a smart game on the part of the Mormons to help out the Democrats in the coming election. They are playing it low down by pretending to take no interest in the campaign while quietly getting every one of their numbers possible on the registration lists on the sly. It is the familiar Democratic 'still hunt,' with variations to suit the particular case. The surviving 'twain relic' was always tied to the Democracy, but the game is watched and the anti-Mormon clause of the State Constitution will be enforced."

THE Los Angeles Express of a recent date says: "Eugene Germain would like to know what land is worth, two acres of which will in one season realize $2400. This is the sum that James Looney of Pomona received for the prunes gathered from his two-acre orchard of that fruit." Prunes will undoubtedly flourish well in the Salt River Valley, and any man with five to ten acres of them will be assured of a magnificent income. They require much the same cultivation and soil as peaches, and the success of the latter in this valley is fully assured. Plant prunes. It will pay.

CALIFORNIANS never do any thing in a half-hearted manner and the way they are taking hold of their World's Fair exhibit shows that the Golden State will be magnificently represented at Chicago in '93. Arizonans may well take a lesson from their neighboring State in this respect. It is not too soon to organize for the World's Fair. With her wealth in mines, producing gold, silver, copper, lead and other metals, her cattle industries, her rich timber belts, her historical ruins, and above all her superior advantages for fruit culture, Arizona should make an exhibit that will be second to none. In order to do this well the people must bestir themselves and get organized for the work.

Why not organize in Phoenix a branch society of Arizona Pioneers? The years have rolled along, leaving gray hairs on the heads of every Hassayamper, and it would, no doubt, be of great interest to them to sit with their comrades of former years and retell the tales of adventure and wild life, of which all are possessed of so large a store. In this city are fifty or more men who came to Arizona prior to 1870, and they should by all means form themselves into a society, the main aim of which should be the completion and preservation of an accurate history of Arizona's history.

Is it possible that the Bourbon leaders have laid plans whereby the next Grand Jury shall be a Democratic one, to be swayed by them into any policy that may be directed? The thought is almost absurd, and yet the utterances of the ring's mouthpiece would tend to lead one to believe that the Democracy are relying upon that very thing, however absurd it may appear. When political tricksters attempt to run the courts it is indeed time for the honest voters, irrespective of party, to rise in their strength and by their ballots relegate such politicians to the rear.

THEODORE SCHULTZ, a real estate agent of Tempe, will arrive today with a large number of colonists, gathered by him in Eastern Kansas. This is practical work in stimulating immigration. Every contented settler from the thickly settled regions farther East serves as a lodestone, attracting thither, by the force of his comparisons, his neighbors and friends in the less-favored country left behind. Mr. Schultz is simply a real estate agent, working for his commission, but nevertheless has done a good deed for the valley.

EMBOLDENED by its success in having an indictment for felony against one of its managers squelched by the last grand jury, the Democratic organ probably thinks it will be sole director of the next grand jury. Well there is some good work ahead. For instance, the people would like to know what has become of the extra $25,000 collected in taxes and not accounted for.

NEW SOUTH WALES has adopted Sir Henry Park's scheme for federation of the Australian colonies. This action will no doubt be followed by the other colonies, resulting in a centralized government, after the plan of that in Canada. There are many who believe this but the first step towards the ultimate formation of an Australian Republic.

The city of Denver, which in 1880 had 25,000 inhabitants, shows 106,670 this year, an increase of over 200 per cent in the last decade. She may well take to herself the title "Queen City of the Plains," and the year 1900 will no doubt find her a city with a quarter of a million inhabitants.

A good active man with a shotgun would do incalculable service to Phoenix by practicing target shooting at dogs for the next ten days. The last few nights have been made hideous by the continued yelping of dogs over the town.

VISITORS to Phoenix remark that our stores present quite a metropolitan appearance.

PROCLAMATION OF REWARD.

WHEREAS, It has come to my knowledge that Ed. Baker, eldest son of J. H. Baker, who resides at Lookout, on the Sierra Ancha mountains, about forty miles north of Globe, Gila county, was murdered in a most brutal manner by some person or persons unknown, (though the presence of Indian tracks in the immediate vicinity strongly indicate that the crime was committed by Indians).

Now, therefore, I, Louis Wolfley, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, by virtue of the power within me vested do hereby offer a reward in the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars to be paid out of the treasury of the Territory for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who committed the aforementioned crime.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the Territory to be affixed. Done at Phoenix, the capital, this 20th day of July, A. D., 1890. LEWIS WOLFLEY.

Signed: [GREAT SEAL.] By the Governor. Signed: NATHAN O. MURPHY Secretary of Territory.
